LIVERLIPS

Here are some of the many letters that we've received from all you readers spouting your opinion about Herbert Clawson (owns a sports car and is down on drag racing) subscribing to DRAG cartoons. The voting count presently stands at 167 NO! 21 YES! Well, Herbie-boy, you can see where you stand! Any further questions?

I take quill in hand to broadcast to you that Hippy Herbie should be put in a cross bar hotel and the key thrown away! Dig?! Ya should put that Herbie with a head shrinker. I cast my vote NO! If Herbie bugs ya, just send us (Murder Inc.) his pad number and we'll take care of him. Got to split now, the fuzz is at my front door.

Tim Griffith
Galesburg, Ill.

Boy that big mouth Clawson has some nerve trying to get a subscription to your great mag. If you ask me, he should dig a hole in the ground and bury his head in it.

Bruce Livingston
Ft. Worth, Texas

Don't let Herbie, the lousy *!#? nut, the stinkin fink, mouse, Commie rat fink (after all, everybody knows the A.C.L.U. is a Commie front organization) into our elite ranks.

Charles Reinhard
South Finksville, Calif.

Personally, I think a slob like Herbie should be banished from the U.S. Like I dig drag racing the most. I don't think finks should be among us. Listen liverlips, you pansy fink, you must be some sort of nut. DON'T SEND HIM A SUBSCRIPTION!

Richie Norris
Jonesboro, Arkansas

You can tell that no good dirty rat to take his check back. He is a disgrace to the drag racing profession. I don't know anybody who bad mouths drag racing. If anything happens, all the midwest wil stay on your side till the end.

Richard Hankins
Davenport, Iowa

Hey, man, what's with this mess about that kook who keeps dipping his pen in the blood bottle and writing down a bunch of chops about dragging? Fer cryin' out loud, I'm partial to sports cars myself and I like the stuff you guys put out, even if you Do take an occasional pot-shot at sports cars.

So what's the big deal? I mean, hundred yard dash men don't fight with mile runners, so why should our two groups be at each other's throats? Any sports car fan who knows his stuff will tell you that he has a lot of admiration for a car that can jump off the line like it had a thorn in its tail and wail through the quarter in ten flat, the same way as most broad-minded hot rod enthusiasts who have never seen a railer stay fired up for more than twenty minutes at a stretch admire a Ferrari or Cobra that can run from ten in the morning to ten at (like at Sebring) and still stay in one piece.

So if this moron Clawson wants in, let 'im come . . . it'll keep him quiet and stop his whining like a sick hound dog. People like that are at their best when they're quiet.

David Allan Roach
Weymouth, Mass.

Keep this Herb Clawson out! Man, what a fink! What he needs is the Tomikins Dooley treatment where you hang him by his nose till his eyes bug out like our friend R. F.

Ted Cutshaw
Memphis, Tenn.

Hey man, whats with the discrimination bit? What is he anyway, if Herbie-boy thinks he's such hot stuff, let him go charge you with discrimination and the Civil Liberties Union will tell him to *!#?. If I were you-all, I'd tell Herbie where to go and send back his check.

Barbara Symth
Tulsa, Okla.

I bet Herbie picks his nose in public and he's for integration of drag strips. I have a neighbor just like him and I can't stand him, so I beat him up all of the time. Herbie probably doesn't have too many friends so here is a friend for him. His name and address are as follows: John Swanson, Oliver Springs Road, Van Buren, Arkansas. Nobody else wants Johnny, not even his own mother because she says he is a fink. Please send Herbie his new friend's name and address.

Rick Mopar
Van Buren, Arkansas

You nice people ought to ban Herbie Clawson from reading and/or buying DRAG cartoons. I mean a fink who does not like the drags is nuts. I think the other readers of this great mag will agree with me, unless there are more finks out there like the fink Herbie Clawson.

Richard Marley
North Bend, Wash.

Me, I don't think this kind of creep ought to be among us. It makes me hot to think he would spout off about drags and calling you guys a bunch of schnooks. He ought to be hung from the highest tree.

Mike Musson
Arkansas City, Kan.

There is more in this world than drag racing, you know. You said Herb Clawson was a creep. You could easily have a law suit on your hands for slander and if God wills, let you pay and heavily. You should make a public apology. You also said, and I quote you, "you mouthed off about drag racing". Is this not the great land of the United States where people have freedom of speech? You said if he had kept his big mouth shut, nothing would have been said. He has the right to say anything he wishes so long as it hurts no one else and if you had responded to his request, he wouldn't have been in this fix.

James Wright Jr.
Toombsboro, Ga.

I say keep that fink Clawson from getting to be a subscriber to DRAG. Are we to let a (ugh) sportscar fan in our midst? I think I speak for all rodders when I say that this insult Clawson has made about us will not be taken lying down. So, like, this is one vote against Clawson getting a subscription.

Don Clark
Columbus Junction, Iowa

This guy who blasts drag racing should be hung. To take his money would be a disgrace. Tell him to drop dead. I know most of the guys in Davenport are on your side.

Roe Jones
Davenport, Iowa

I agree with "The Vigilante" in the July issue, like, only more so. How can a (Eeeecchh) Flathead even compare with an overhead? Can you finks possibly picture the really cool Tommy Ivo Bomb with four (ugh) flatties? (Cough, spit, expectorate, Regurgitate, and all them other rot phrases) Why don't you clods start an "Overhead Always" instead of sitting around watching the (gaaahh) NAAFH grow? And about the (cough) Intruder: on the read cover of the July issue, you show it beating an OHV out of the hole??? Who won or was it a ruse? How many OHVs has it beat? Well, how about an OWATF (Overheads Will Always Top Flatties)? Don't get me wrong, because I love drags and your mag is the greatest. Keep up the good work and never cut Ollie and Val out of the issue, but you can forget that loser (spit) Temple McFlathead.

Michael Rohulich
Clarks Summit, Pa.

Cough, spit, gaahhh, ugh, etc.

Although you think this is a complaint, it actually isn't. I think the flatheads (ugh) and the overheads (rah) can live in peaceful co-existence (off the strips) but . . . on the strips the flatheads better be ready to get mopped up.

Steve Rixen
Harlan, Iowa

You call this peacetul Co-existence?

Ya know somefin, I think you guys is nuts. Like, Dad, I mean going out and putting down Overheads. Guys like that oughta get emselves tied to a slick. Like, why not give Temple some trouble. Quit pickin' on Ollie. Like, I mean its enough to make a feller blow his jets. And by the way, what's a matter with the gremmy that thinks a sports car kin beat a dragster? I mean, like, that kid is sick. You fellers would have a great mag if you'd just quit bootin' overheads.

It took ya long enough ta git Big Daddy Roth—three whole issues without him. Oh, the shame of it.

Gabe Marimoe
Columbiaville, Michigan

Okay, I'm hangin' my head. Satisfied?

I've got a complaint and a compliment for your mag. You've got the greatest mag. on the subject, that I know today. I missed your first two mags, but I've read my friends. As soon as I get some dough, I will get a subscription.

There is one thing I don't see, why do you not include something on Stock Car Racing? My friend drives a late model stock car, I think drivers like him should get some credit for their good deed in racing.

So like they say. Where I live, let's "dig into it", and give something to the stockers.

I also think that Herb Clawson should get his subscription, if he takes a better attitude towards Drag Cartoons. I also think he should apologize for insulting your great mag. Good Luck.

Bruce Fennigan
West Islip, New York

I have every issue of DRAG cartoons and I think it is a very fine mag. I have nothing against flatheads, but I would like to say that the back cover of the July issue is the biggest piece of propaganda I have ever seen. It is true that the Intruder gave that blown Chrysler a hole job but why didn't you print that the Intruder was later blown off? It says at the bottom of the page in VERY small print that it (Intruder) only had the lead for the first twenty feet, but MAYBE some of the readers didn't notice it. A fuel injected flathead could never shut down a full blown Chrysler overhead. Besides this error, your mag provides enjoyable reading.

Mark Braccia
Clyde, New York

Ain't we sneaky?

I have but one question before I start criticizing. Like, how come you guys are against the overheads? Now the good part. The flathead is obsolete. True it is a great mill, but that was in the past. I don't know how it is out in California, but here in Texas the only flatheads belong to old, old men. Let's face it OVERHEADS are supreme. I thank you.

Mike Cattin
Wichita Falls, Texas

An we thank you . . . sure!

the Drag INTRUDER cartoons

Our office has been swamped with letters requesting that we show more photos of THE INTRUDER. Apparently you guys, and gals have taken a liking to it. For those of you who are wondering why a humor magazine, such as ours would want to feature a dragster let me bring you up to date. One of the first questions we're asked is . . . "Where do you guys get all your ideas?". Our answer is, and always will be, WE TAKE AN ACTIVE INTEREST IN WHAT WE'RE DOING . . . after all, aren't we putting out a humor magazine on drag racing? So why shouldn't we be interested enough to take an active roll. If you should see us at the drags come on over and get acquainted . . . we'd like to meet chas. Hokay?

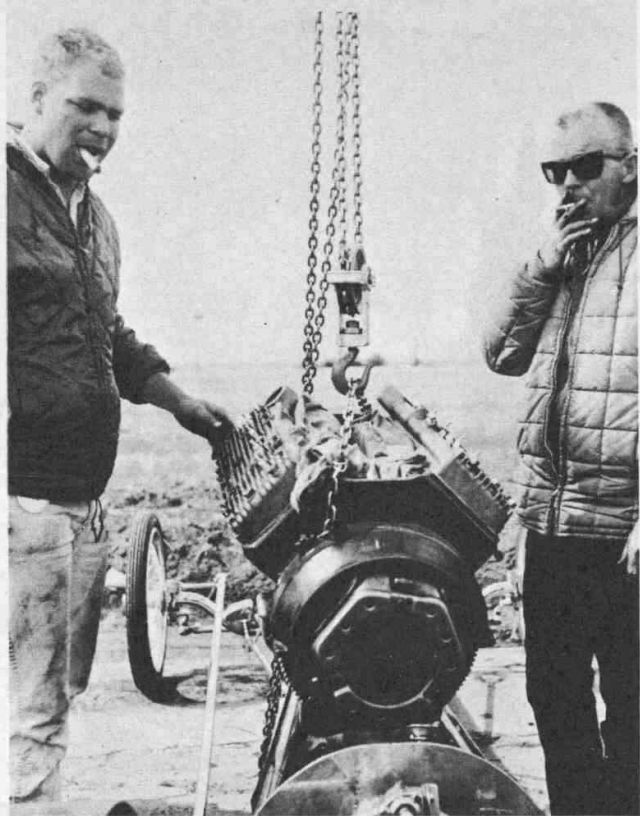

Closeup shows the compactness of the drivers compartment. Interior is black naugahyde and was custom fitted by Dicks Top Shop, Torrance, Calif. Note the 'bubble' on cowl, it houses a mechanical tach. Slicks are MH's mounted on mags.

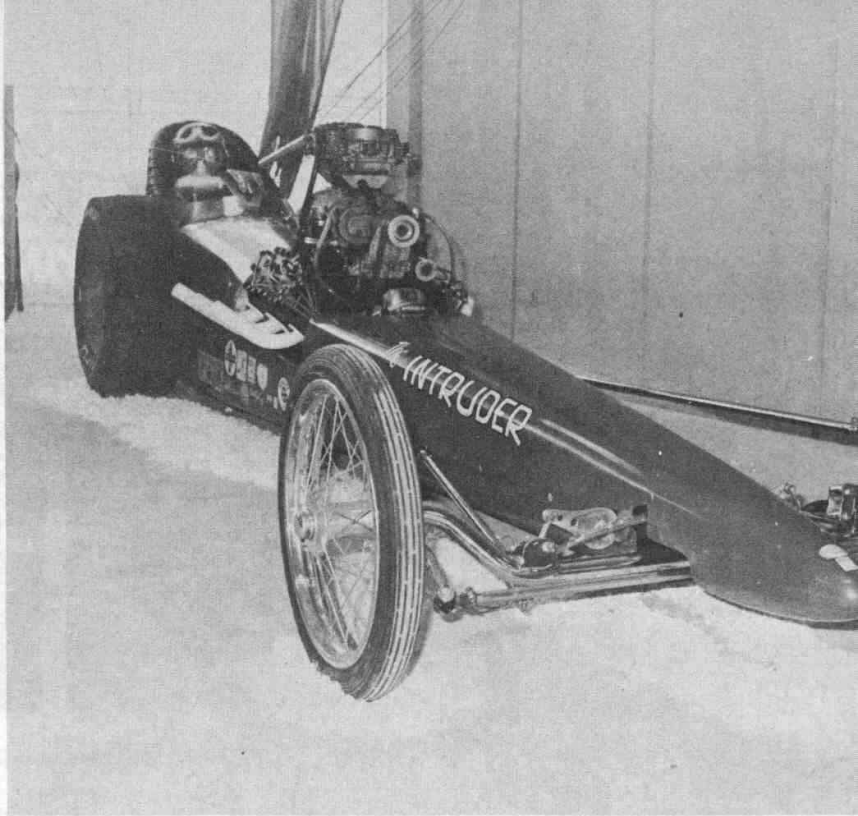

The fuel burning flattie has a wheelbase of 123". Chassis was designed and built by Ron Roseberry of R&L Chassis, Anaheim, Calif. The beautiful full aluminum body was built by Doug Kruse of Long Beach, Calif. George Barris did the painting and Joe Locosto of Speedway Headers made the exhausts.

Owner-driver Pete Millar takes 'five' during a recent UDRA meet. The INTRUDER qualified at 10.39 but a 'fried' piston kept us out of competition.

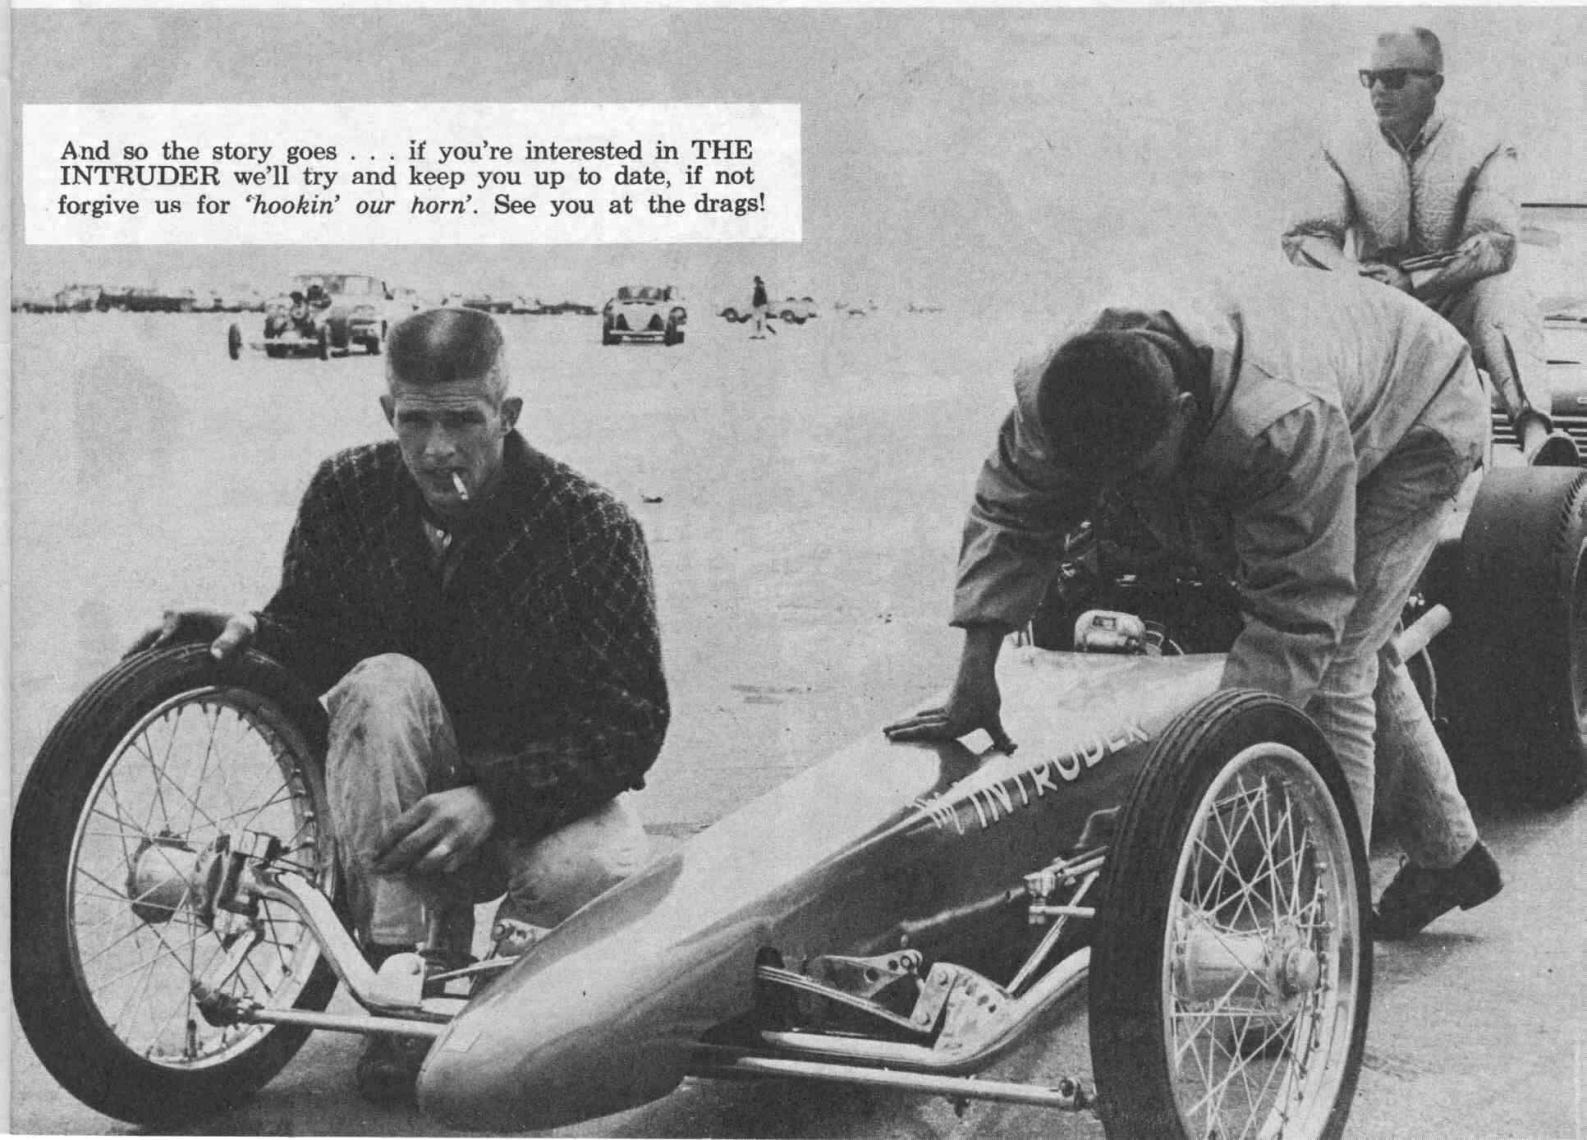

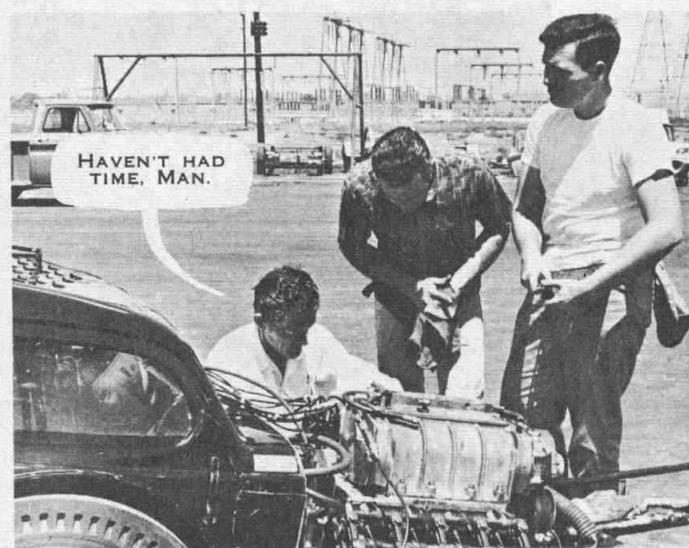

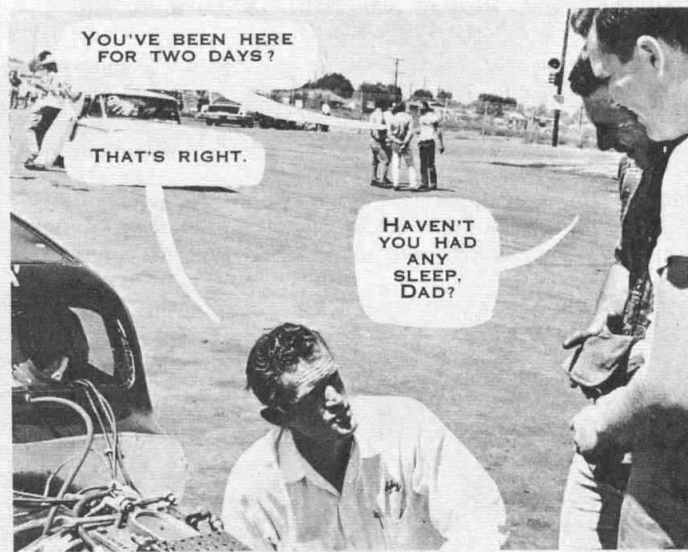

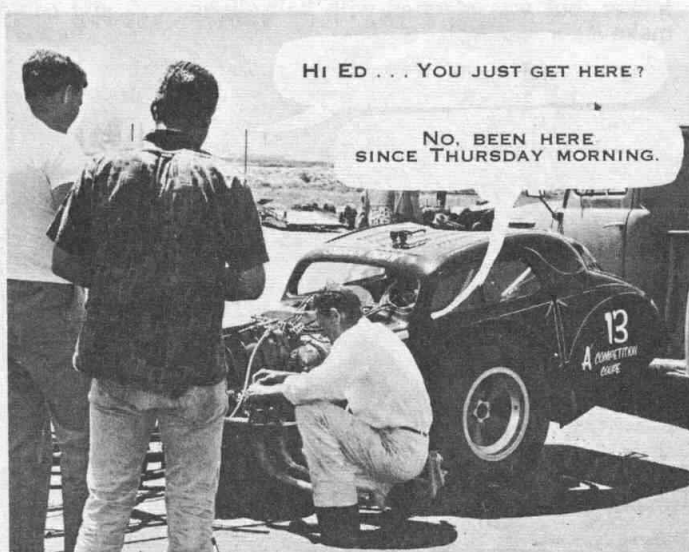

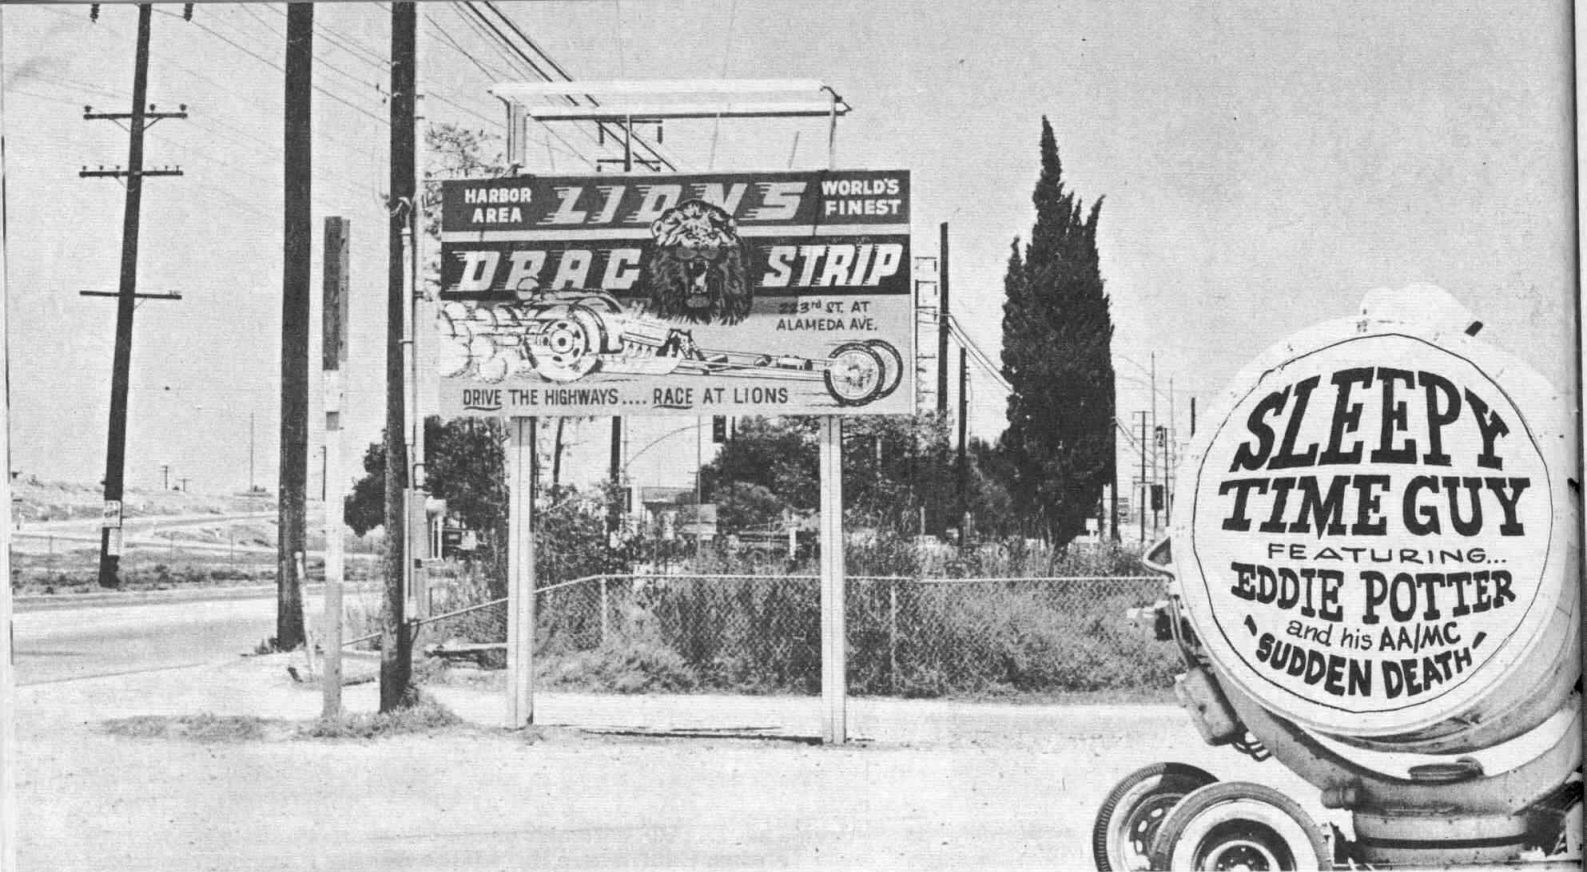

What'dya do when the pistons start changing cylinders? it goes without saying. Fortunately we brought along a spare engine. It took all of one day to yank out the 'tired' one and install the spare. Best et was 10.01 137.56 mph. Eh!

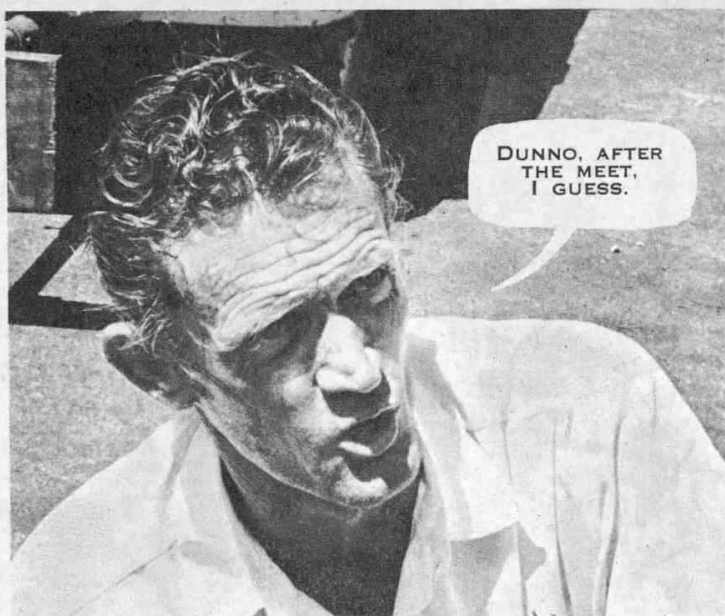

The DRAG cartoons racing team made their way to Fresno, Calif. where the AHRA 'Winter Race of Champions' was being held. We installed a S.C.O.T. blower on a 296 inch, but was plagued with belt slippage . . . and couldn't make a good show.

And so the story goes . . . if you're interested in THE INTRUDER we'll try and keep you up to date, if not forgive us for 'hookin' our horn'. See you at the drags!

Ye ELEVEN AGES of a RODD'R

By WM. SHAKESPEARE

*Extracted from the Famous Old English
Classic, "MUCH ADO ABOUT WHEELS"*

At first the Infant, mewling and puking in his wheel'd carriage.

And then the Tot, bashing
and battering thro' ye plants and shrubs.

And then the yowling Schoolboy,
with pantaloons torn and ripped by ye chain and sprocket contrivance.

Next emerges the Competitor,
with ally of machinery fuming,
clanking, loudly popping.

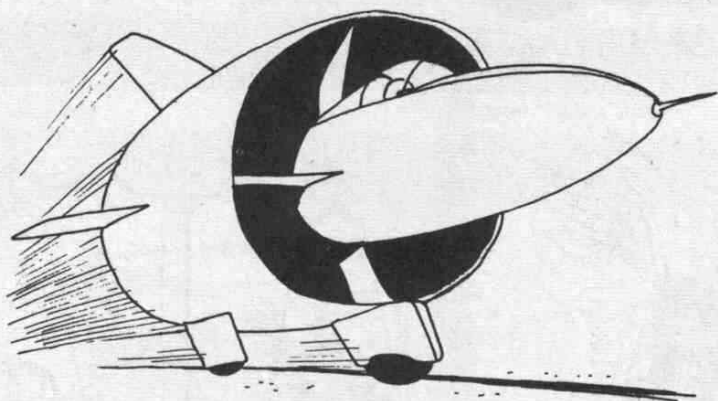

And then the Lover,
sighing like furnace,
his conveyance ditto.

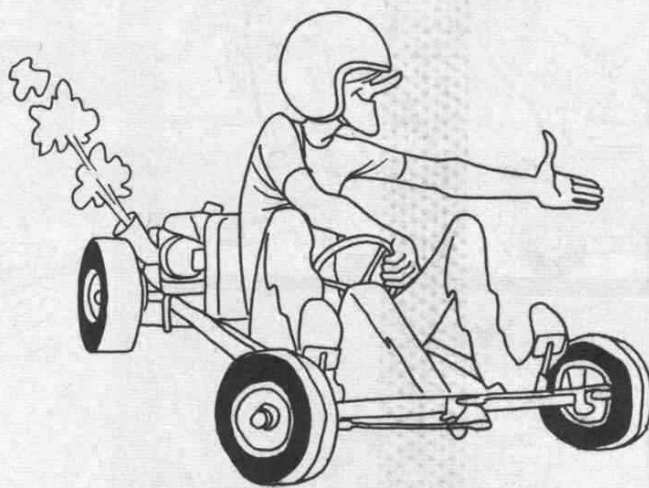

And then the Wastrel, feverishly chopping, channeling, sectioning, short'ning to beget steed of dazzling chrome.

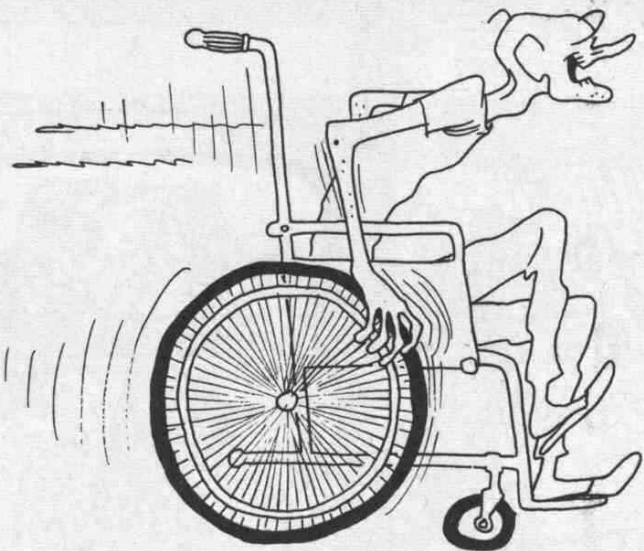

Next a Soldier, knight of the thund'ring strips, perpetually enqulfed in belching smoke.

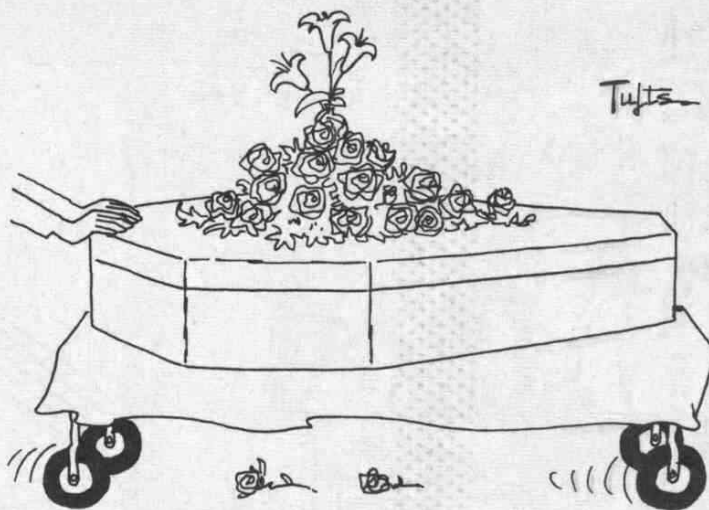

Then the Record-Breaker, bent on proving to breathless masses that ye Rodd'r is superior to ye Bull't.

The ninth age is ye Age of R'member'd Glory; also of loos'ning grip and slipping clutch.

And then the Child returns, bashing and battering thro' ye plants and shrubs.

And finally comes Oblivion, sans fumes, sans squealing rubber, sans pop and roar, sans everything. Except wheels!
